THE REPUBLICAN NOMINEE FOR PRESIDENT.

BLAINE ASKS HIS FRIENDS TO RE-SPECT HIS LETTERS,

AND A BREAK IS MADE FOR THE INDIANA SENATOR.

The Convention Adjourns Saturday Afternoon Until Monday Without Doing Any Business—The Telegrams as Received From Blaine - Allison's Name Withdrawn at the End of the Seventh Ballot-The Last Ballot in Full-Harrlson's Total Vote 544-Comments on the Nominee.

SATURDAY'S AFTERNOON SESSION. CHICAGO, June 25.-At 4:08 Saturday afternoon, Mr. Estee, the chairman, called the convention to order and stated that the convention was ready to proceed with the business. It was immediately moved by Mr. King, of Maryland, that the convention adjourn without ballot until 11 o'clock Monday. The secretary called the roll of states, and the motion was carried by a vote of 496

MONDAY'S SESSION. CHICAGO, June 25.—Thethrong outside the the auditorium was not as dense this morning as was the case at every session of the convention last week. This is explained by the fact that nearly all the political clubs and legions and the great mass of general visitors disappointed by the protracted length of the convention, and despairing of having an opportunity soon to assist in the ratification jubilee of the successful nominee, had turued their faces bonneward en masse after the adjournment of Saturday afternoon,

What under other circumstances would be regarded as an imposing crowd besieged the doors of the building from an early hour, and from the time that the gatekeepers began their duties at 9:80 there was a continuous inpour to the upper parts of the house. An hour later very few of the 9,000 seats allotted to the outside pubilo were empty. The delegates, too, on the whole were remarkably early in arriving. Thirty of the New Yorkers, nearly all of the Virginians and many southern, Minnesota, Michigan and Ohio contingets were in their seats at 10:30 o'clock, although the time for reassembling was half an hour later. .

Very little enthuslasm was manifested and the leading lights of the gathering strolled in one after another without being accorded a single demonstration. Inside, as well as outside the atmosphere was close and sultry, and there were indications of a thunderstorm, a fact which caused an enthusiastic Biaine man to suggest that the elements were preparing to give the successful candidate a baptism of thunder and lightning.

Mr. Manley, of Maine, remarked to a United Press reporter this morning that Biaine would accept only a unanimous nomination, which at present seemed impossible and that he hoped there would be no more voting for Biaine unless he were formally pnt in nomination. Chairman Estee said as he passed the United Press stand: "Boys, we are going to make a president for you to-day sure." Mr. Boutelle, of Maine, then took the platform and proceeded to talk ahout Mr. Blaine's attltude toward the convention. He said that without attempting to give any construction to the lauguage employed he will read some dispatches from Mr. Blaine, as follows:

"EDINBURGH, June 24. "To Boutelle and Manley: "Earnestly request all friends to respect BLAINE." my Paris letter.

"EDINBURGH, June 24. To Poutelle and Manley, Maine Delegation, Chicago: "I think I have a right to ask my friends to respect my wishes and refrain from voting for me. Please make this and former dispatch public promptly.

"J. G. BLAINE." At 11 o'clock Chairman Estee, accompanied by Rev. Dr. Edwards, editor of the Northwestern Christian Advocate, who was to open the sixth day of the convention with prayer, made their appearance. Not a dozen delegates were absent when the chair, at 11:05, brought down his gavel upon the desk and announces that the convention would some to order. Mr. Houston, of Virginia, offered a resolution that no vote should be counted which was cast for any one who had not been regularly placed in nomination. The resolution was declared to be out of order.

The convention then proceeded to call the roll of states for the sixth hallot. It was completed at 1:55, and resulted as follows: Alger 137, Allison 78, Gresham 91, Harrison 231, Sherman 244, Foraker 1, Blaine 40, Fred. Grant 1, McKinley 12.

The seventh ballot was completed at 12:30, and resulted as follows: Alger 120, Aillson 96, Blaine 15, Foraker 1, Gresham 91, Harrison 278, Lincoln 2, McKinley 16, Sherman 931, Haymond 1.

At the conclusion of the seventh hallot Mr. Henderson, of Iowa, rose and sald: "I rise to thank the friends in this convention who have shown their confidence in the character and fitness of William B. Allison, for the presidency, and here with the authority of that gentleman I withdraw his name for the further consideration of the convention." [Applause.] The eighth ballot resuited as follows:

Wyoming Territory-Harrison 2. The eighth and last ballot for president was completed at 1:13, and resulted as follows: Harrison 544, Alger 100, Sherman 118, Biaine 5, McKinley 4, Gresham 59. The uomination of Harrison was received with considerable enthusiasm. Delegates rose en masse, and the cheering was loud and long. The hand also played patriotic airs. The roil call demonstrated the accuracy of the vote as already given, and Governor Foraker moved that the convention make Harrison's nomination unanlmous. He said that the delegation from Ohio, who were all Sherman men, would go away from this conveution ail Harrison men. They could do so, he said, with perfect consistency, because they all knew that Harrison was born in Ohlo. [Great applause.]

Mr. Horr, of Michigau, said he came here hoping that one of Michigan's sons would be chosen as the standard bearer of the Republican party. But they had not succeeded in their desire, and now if it were asked how the Michigan delegation would stand by Harrison he would reply by pointing out the way in which they had stood by Alger. He accepted the result and he hoped that all the delegations would return to their homes believing that the nomination which had been made had been indicated by Providence from the start. They had come here, he said, to place a soldier at the head of the ticket, and in that they had succeeded.

Senator Farweii promised that Illinois would give her electoral vote to Harrison and he also seconded the motion of Governor Foraker to make Harrison's nomination

Mr. Depew said that as the only presidential candidate in the convention he also seconded the motion. He knew when he came here that Ohio would carry off the honors, because that state always gained the day. The delegates would go away without heartburnings and fuil of enthuslasm.

Gen. Hastings sald he had been instructed by the Pennsylvania delegation to congratulate the convention on the selection it had made. Pennsylvania had a hundred thousand majority for any Republican candidate and Harrison would get it all. Gen. Henderson, of Iowa, said he was full of sorrow, not because the man of his choice and been beaten, but because the convention nad nominated a man whom the Democratic party coulon't utter one truthful word. No candidate could have been found who could have claimed a warmer place in the hearts of the American people. No words of calumny could be uttered against Gen. Harrison's character, and what would the quill drivers of the Democratic party do? As Iowa had promptly withdrawn its candidate, so with equal promptness it responded to the call of the convention when the tide turned in the direction of the candidate who had been so enthusiastically named. Mr. Boutelle, of Malne, said that his delegation had been placed in a delicate and embarrassing position. They came impressed with the feeling that there might be attributed to the vote of Maine a significance apartifrom its numerical strength, and they had eudeavored to avoid this. How well they had done this the convention was the best judge. He pledged the hearty support of the east to the nominee, one that would call back the refrain when another Harrison was in the field: "Have you heard the news from Maine?" In the forefront of the battle the white plume would be found gleaming as it always had been. [Great applause.]

Creed Haymond, of California, who was called out, sald that his heart was overflowing with happlness. The convention had solved the question as to whether a soldler or a statesman should lead the party, and It had solved the problem by selecting one who combined both the soldier and the statesman. There would not be much use of taiking in this campaign. The people had already started it and they were loaded for Several other prominent Republicans followed, speaking in glowing terms of the candldate, and at the closing of the speaking Mr. Bradley, of Kontucky, said he went down in defeat under the banner of that gallant soldier from Michigan, but he cordially seconded the nomination of Gen. Harrison and said that he promised them that Kentucky would again go to the aid of Indiana. In the name of Lincoln and Clay, whose names Kentucky is proud to honor, he seconded the nomination.

There were calls for McKiniey, but he dld not respond. The nomination was then made unanimous, and Harrison was formally declared the nominee of the convention.

The call of the roll of states was ordered for the presentation of the names of candidates for vice president.

Hon. R. W. Thompson, of Indiana, moved a recess until 5 p. m., but it was not regularly seconded, and after a brief delay the roll call began with Mr. Hastings, of Pennsylvania, in the chair.

Mr. Denny, of Kentucky, placed W. O. Bradley, of that state, in nomination. The nomination of Bradley was seconded by Kausas, Aibert Griffin spoke for that delegation and said that but for the suppresslon of the southern vote four years ago Blaine would be in the White House to-day instead of in Scotland. The nomination was also seconded by Warner, of Alabama; Houk, of Tennessee; Locke, of Georgia, and Atkinson, of Michigan.

Mr. Sewell, of New Jersey, presented the name of William Walter Rhelps, of New Senator Hiscock said further proceedings his wife in the evening, was awake and at 3:08 the recess was taken. Benjamin Harrison was born on August 80, 1833, in Hamilton county, Ohio. Having graduated at the Oxford, O., University, he studied law in Cincinnati, and In 1854 he settled on Indianapolis as his future home and has been one of its most prominent lawyers since. He was elected in 1800 as reporter of the supreme court of Indiana, but enlisted immediately after President Lincoln's first cail for volunteers. He received his commissiou as second lieutenant and organized Company A of the Seventieth Indi-, family. Long is a tough character and the ana volunteers infantry. The chimes in St. Michael's Roman Catholio church had just ceased ringing when some of the folks in Washingtod street saw a man climbing the tall steeple of the church. When Sullivan went to the tower to climb it the belimen refused to let him pass, but afterward he slipped by them, and the first they knew of the fatal climb was when they saw the bleeding body on the church roof after the fail. A Rush to the Side of the Little Craft Causes It to Overturn-Six Lives Lost.

NEWARK, N. J., June 25.—Sixteen young men and women hired the steam yacht Olivette Saturday evening to take a moonlight excursion on the water. It being flood tide, the jetty at the mouth of the bay was covered with water. The pilot, Daver, had scarcely got his bearings when he heard a sharp grating sound, and realizing that he was on the jetty, stopped the engine. Several of the male passengers jumped over on the jetty, and in doing so the boat lurched and slid off into deep water.

The girls then made a rush for the side of the boat. This caused her to keel over suddenly, and in a second she turned bottom side up. The air was immediately filled with screams from for help from persons struggling for their lives in the water. The cries were heard at Greenville and other points on the bay, and rescuers soon went to the scene of the accident. But when the boats arrived it was found that six of the party had been swept away and drowned. The names of the lost were: Louis Groff, Gussie Lutz, Lizzie Zeliui, Minnle Burger, Gussle Weber and Annie Fricke, Fred Christopher, one of the rescued, was engaged to be married to Annie Fricke, who was drowned.

MAYSVILLE FIRE DEPARTMENT.

Suggestions Offered by a Prominent Business Man Who Has Investigated the Subject.

our fire protection brings before us an important question. Mr. Wood was right in saying the members of the fire depart. sharp. ment do not respond to the alarms. They there will be enough men to manage the club. without him, so he either is careless about going to the fire or attends as a spectator. A few boys and one or two falthful men drag the hose carrlages slowly through the streets on response to an alarm and the consequence is, the loss in time in getting to the fire causes a loss several times greater than it really as to make the danger the greater.

Our water works costs us $3,000 a year the club is printed. and yet our protection is not complete by any means. A very small outlay would give us as good and efficient a fire department as there is in the United States. The plan advocated by several business men some time since and investigated by the writer as to cost, &c., is the following: Put up a fire alarm telegraph system with a large gong on a hall centrally located, say the Neptune Hall, of that box will be sounded on the gong, showing in an instant the exact location of the fire. This system can be put up for a cost of from $1,200 to $1,500, including a gong of sufficient size to be MRS. UNKNOWN WHITE PASHA.

THE MAHDI GREATLY CONCERNED OVER THE EVENT.

Some Think That Stanley Has Joined Emin Bey, and That They Are Marching Westward - Germany's New Emperor Speaks to the Reichstag.

LONDON, June 25.—The dispatch of a few days since, concerning the appearance of white pasha in the Bahr-el-Ghazil provinces with a force of men sufficiently large to give the Madhi concern, is regarded here with great interest, and much speculation is indulged in in regard to his personality. Some, who believe that Gordon escaped from Kartoum, suspect that he is the man, or else Edmund O'Donovan, the famous war correspondent of the Daily News, or some other member of the unfortunate Pasha Hicks

The greater number, however, think that Staniey has joined Emin Bey, and that together they are forcing their wny westward. The last is by no means a plausible guess, since the Bahr-el-Ghazii provinces lie not less than 1,000 miles northwest of Wadelai, where Emin Bey is located. It is a fair assumption that ail the unfortunate Europeans whom England sent down the Niie in the name of Egypt against the Soudanese have not perished, and that some one of these has gained a foilowing among the superstitious natives, and set up, perhaps, for a divine interpreter, bent upon both escape and con-

Word received from Herbert Ward, who is on his way home from Ynmbuyn, where Stanley left Maj. Bartellot with a force, says that the latter has suffered greatly for want of provisions.

William Peacefully Disposed.

BERLIN, June 25 .- To-day Emperor William will speak to the German Reichstag. The address will, it is believed, be one of the most reassuring and peaceful messages by a Hohenzollern prince. It is firmly believed in official oircies that a complete understanding has been arrived nt with Russia, and it is probable that in the course of the present summer a meeting will take place between the German emperor, the czar and the emperor of Austria.

Such a beiief, however, has no basis whatever, since it implies that Russia has given up her designs on the Balkan states, while maintaining a vast army on her frontiers to prosecute them in due time, and has suddenly changed a persistent policy that is centuries oid. The present understanding between the powers is the Berlin treaty, and there can be no mutual understanding outside of that between Germany and Russia that will not militate against Austria, and hasten rather than retard war. The unsettled condition of the eastern question will remain in statu quo until war settles it.

Foreigners Uneasy ln Corea.

LONDON, June 25.-A dispatch from Shanghai says a feeling of uneasness prevails among foreigners iu Corea on account of the threatening attitude of the natives. All the foreign consulates are guarded by soldiers. An American innn-of-war has been sent to give assistance. The Coreans are being badgered by both Russia and England in their endeavors to dominate in influence there as a foothoid in pushing their conflicting eastern policy regarding China, it being England's policy to support China as against Russian aggression. Meanwhile China and Japan struggle for ascendancy in Corea, and ! the pro-Chinese party controls the government of King-Ni-Hong.

Foreign Notes.

The emperor and empress made their formai entry into Berlin Sunday night. The French cabinet has decided against allowing Duc D'Aumale to return to Franca. Mr. Cari Schurz amuses himself in Berlin, and passes a good part of his time in the zoological garden.

The vote in the British commons Tuesday on the impugning of the government's administration of the crimes act is expected to drive the Unionists into the Tory camp permanentiv.

Washington, June 25.-The judiciary committee wiil take decisive action, it is believed, to-day regarding Melville W. Fuller's nomination to the chief justiceship of the supreme bench. If a majority of the committee think Mr. Fuiler not qualified for the position it is said they will agree to make an adverse report at once, so that the senate can take up and discuss the nomination. If a report is not speedily made, an effort will be instituted, it is stated by the Democrats, to have the committee discharged from the further consideration of the nomination. It is declared that the judiciary have been temporizing in the matter in order to postpone any action in the case until after the presidential election; but prominent Republicans who are familiar with the usual course taken in such matters affirm that there is no foundation for this belief.
